DESCRIPTION:

The Resource Teacher of the Deaf is a specialised teacher role in the Regional team that involves working directly and indirectly with DHH learners, their mainstream schools and supporting whanau in providing educational programmes, advice and guidance and audiological support to learners within allocated geographical areas across New Zealand.

The role includes supporting schools to provide educational access, academic and social achievement outcomes for learners who are Deaf or Heard of Hearing. They provide well-coordinated, consistent, equitable, evidenced based professional services for learners and their families. They will also develop and maintain collaborative practice around service provision between the MoE and Ko Taku Reo Deaf Education New Zealand.

Please note that all teaching positions are based on the Teaching Council Code and Standards. These criteria recognise that teaching is a highly complex activity, drawing on repertoires of knowledge, practices, professional attitudes and values to facilitate academic, social and cultural learning for students with diverse learning needs. The Code and Standards are viewed as interdependent and overlapping.
